HITACHI DATA SYSTEMS

SOLUTION

As a marketing writer at Hitachi Data Systems, Avery Horzewski wrote a variety of deliverables, including corporate brochures, success stories, gift catalogs, datasheets, white papers, and more. No matter what the assignment involved, Hitachi could count upon Avery's efficiency, timeliness, and outstanding performance.

RESULTS

"Avery understands communication challenges and target audiences; works well in a team; shows telltale signs of a perennial student eager to research any subject; embraces new computer technology with gusto; has never missed a deadline; is punctiliously punctual and scrupulously honest; displays guts and initiative but knows how to handle testy requestors; works concurrently on multiple projects; manages her time well; and is organized beyond belief. Need I say more?"
